

I believe that the petition filed by the ARRL is the most equitable and would cause the least amount of disruption and controversy. The amateur service should be encouraged to grow and prosper for the good of both the amateur radio operators and the country. They can and do provide valuable service to the general public in times of disaster and for other public events. Petition RM-10867 is the one to adopt.